

The Monterey Bay Poetry Consortium Presents:

Dan Linehan & Doren Robbins

Sunday, August 9, 2:00 p.m. via Zoom

Email jfellguth@sbcglobal.net by Sat. August 8 to receive a logon link

A longtime professional writer, author, and award-winning poet, Dan Linehan often interweaves nature, science, current events, and far-flung lands. His poetry has been widely published in books, newspapers, and literary journals, including in The Anthology of Monterey Bay Poets. As managing editor, he cofounded Ping-Pong, and he's written two poetry chapbooks. Dan is passionate about helping to solve environmental crises through creativity. His new multimedia serial novel The Princess of the Bottom of the World includes poetry inspired by his studies and travels to Antarctica and Argentina. For more, visit: <http://www.dslinehan.com>

Doren Robbins is a poet, mixed media artist, and literary critic. His work has appeared in many publications, including The American Poetry Review, Angry Old Man, Another Chicago Magazine, Exquisite Corpse, Otoliths, Sulfur, and The Iowa Review. His books have been awarded the Blue Lynx Poetry Award 2001 and the 2008 PEN Oakland Josephine Miles Poetry Award. This year Spuyten Duyvil Press published his monograph, Apocalypse Contemporary, on Sharon Doubiago's book Naked to the Earth; and highmoonoon books published Not Fade Away: Poetic Prose Monologues, Three Sequences. He is Emeritus Professor of Creative Writing and Literature at Foothill College.

Upcoming Reading: September 13 – Maria Teutsch and Danusha Lameris

*For more information, please contact John Laue: (831) 684-0854
Sponsored by The Monterey Bay Poetry Consortium*